Professional summary

Aspiring MERN Full-Stack Developer, eager to embark on an internship journey in web development. I bring a foundation in JavaScript, HTML5, and CSS3, with a strong desire to apply these skills within the MERN stack. Committed to delivering quality code, problem-solving, and collaborating effectively with a team. My internship goal is to learn from experienced developers, contribute to real-world projects, and stay current with industry trends while building efficient and secure web solutions.
